Adventists to Follow Seven Point Program

A seven point program to "revitalize the Christian experience of every church member," was announced this week by Pastor Glenn L. Goffar of the Torrance Seventh-Day Adventist Church, 1610 Acacia St.

The new program, according to Pastor Goffar, will be outlined from his pulpit on Saturday, Feb. 18.

This program of individual Christian responsibility is being voiced from Seventh-Day Adventist pulpits throughout Southern California. Pastor Goffar said, "In the knowledge that from our church members will see more fully the responsibility placed upon them as Christians who have dedicated their lives to God's service."

The Program Pastor Goffar said that the program's seven points are: 1. Every church enjoying Christian fellowship. 2. Every church Bible school. Every member a student. 3. Every church an evangelistic center. 4. Every church a spiritual center. 5. Every church faithful in its stewardship. 6. Every church with a vision of the world's needs. 7. Every church service a spiritual feast.

"These seven points place responsibility upon the minister as well as the lay members," the minister added. "Our 1956 church program will include many new plans that seek to follow their admonition."

Board Says 69 Million Not Attending Church

A mass evangelistic rally will be held this Sunday, Feb. 19, in Long Beach to hear Methodist Bishop Gerald Kennedy preach one of the opening sermons in a "March of Faith" drive which is now in its first phase. Members of the First Methodist Church of Torrance will attend the meeting.

The United denominational effort was begun shortly after an announcement by the national headquarters of the Board of Evangelism which revealed that there are an estimated 69,000,000 persons in the United States with no church affiliation.

The ratio of individual responsibility toward winning those outside the church is eight cents per cent for each member present by enrolled.

Bishop Kennedy will be in Southern California and Arizona for two weeks preaching each night at a different location.

The local congregation, led by Rev. John L. Taylor, has selected the Long Beach area as the rallying point, most convenient to hear the Bishop's call to join in placing the evangelism emphasis on every department of the parish program.

Buses will leave Torrance First Methodist Church Sunday evening at 8:30 for the Long Beach church where the meeting begins at 7:30.

Laymen already have been meeting at various centers for Christian Witness week end workshops for visitation evangelism.

Said Hubert Orton, of Hollywood, conference leader for the whole territory, "Our idea is that if you want to contact the unchurched, a good time to go after them is Sunday morning. That's when you'll catch them at home."

The women in the churches under the jurisdiction of Bishop Kennedy have been having prayer vigils which maintain continuous intercession at church altars for the program.

The public is invited to attend the rally.
